This License Agreement is entered into between the Trustees of the California State University by San José State University, hereinafter called "University" and the individual whose name appears on the above, hereinafter called "Licensee".
In consideration for the right to occupy an assigned apartment within the housing facility at the University, Licensee hereby agrees to make payments to the University in accordance with the payment plan and/or meal plan selected on the online Assignment application.

Licensee and University agree to adhere to the terms and conditions set forth in the 2009-2010 Annual CVA Housing License Agreement Booklet. This contract is valid during the time period indicated below and legally obligates the Licensee to full payment of fees for the licensed period. If this debt is referred to a private collection agency, then the Licensee is responsible for paying any reasonable collection costs.

I am applying for housing in the:

(initial) _____ The CVA Apartments

For the CVA Apartments, this License Agreement covers the entire academic year August 1, 2009-May 31, 2010.
It does not include the summer period.

I (we) have read the entire 2009-2010 Annual CVA Housing Apartments License Agreement Booklet (which can be found online at www.housing.sjsu.edu) and I (we) agree to the terms. By signing below, I authorize University Housing Services to import my Tower Card picture into their database for internal use only. I also give my permission to use my image on the housing publications, documents, and websites to promote the housing services on campus. I understand by signing this document I give up my rights to my image unless I circle and initial decline here.
